++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Rain clearing east tonight. Further heavy rain on Saturday evening.

This Evening and Tonight:
Any rain will gradually clear east through the evening to become patchy and confined to Essex after midnight. It'll remain mostly cloudy though, with perhaps a few breaks developing around dawn, especially along south coastal areas. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Saturday:
Largely cloudy at first but dry and brightening up. Some outbreaks of rain will then develop during the afternoon to become extensive and occasionally heavy, perhaps thundery, by the evening. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Often cloudy with occasionally heavy rain or thundery showers through the period. Sometimes warm in sunny intervals between showers.
